QUAKERS CONQUER RIO GRANDE ELEVEN, 7 TO 6

SPORT HONEY FROM THE BUMBLE BEE

By Kroger Babb

KING FOOTBALL will tighten his hold on the sporting world this week with an attractive list of games for the gridiron bugs to worry about.

Wilmington Hi will perform at home, Friday, engaging Sharonville of the Greater Cincinnati loop.

Wilmington College is to make a long trip to Defiance, where a veteran and strong opponent will be encountered at the Northwestern Ohio city.

Xenia Central travels to Cincinnati Withrow this weekend, Fairmont plays at Celina and Lebanon at Oakwood. The C. S. & S. O. Home team is booked for London, with Manchester playing at Washington C. H. and Chillicothe venturing into Portsmouth's field. The Greenfield-Hillsboro contest at Hillsboro will be a top-notcher.

In the collegiate division, Dayton's battle with Xavier at Cincinnati, Friday night, and the annual Ohio State-Michigan tussle at Columbus, Saturday, will headline the card.

THE HARD tackling of a Wilmington athlete might be contributed as a part of the reason for Northwestern's 15 to 6 defeat at Michigan, Saturday, in an important Western Conference game.

"Pug" Rentner, the Wildcats All-American halfback fumbled the ball six times, paving the way for Michigan's scores and being a liability rather than an asset to his team when he lost 15 more yards than he gained in scrimmage.

Rentner, according to a recent news dispatch from Evanston, was in bad physical condition for the important game due to injuries he suffered in a scrimmage some days ago with the Northwestern freshman eleven.

And it was Wilmington's "Rod" Telfair, captain of High School's undefeated team last fall, who tackled Rentner so hard. "Tellie" is a flankman on Northwestern's frosh outfit this fall and All-American or no All-American, they all look the same to "Rod."

BELLMAN SNAGS PASS TO SCORE FOR PEELEMEN

Gallia Countians Fail In Try For Extra Point To Tie Count

By KROGER BABB

Wilmington College achieved its first grid victory since the middle of the 1931 campaign, Saturday, defeating Rio Grande, 7 to 6, in a homecoming contest witnessed by more than 1,200 at the Gallia county institution.

Bellman, W. C. star freshman halfback, accounted for the Peelemen's winning points, snagging a sensational pass for a touchdown and adding the extra point by place kick, which at the finish proved the winning edge.

The two elevens were well matched, W. C. being the heavier and Rio Grande the faster, more versatile and aggressive. The first half was scoreless, neither team being able to puncture the other's defense.

Score In Third Period

Wilmington's scoring came late in the third quarter. W. C. recovered a fumble on Rio Grande's 44-yard line and Bellman in two efforts carried the ball to the 20. A pass, Barack to Pollard, netted 15 yards but the Red and White team stiffened and a 5-yard penalty set the Tornado back to the 20 yard stripe. On fourth down came the spectacular pass for a score.

"Penney" Pollard, tow-headed W. C. halfback, whiffed a long spiraling pass into the end zone which Bellman gathered in with one-hand while three Rio Grande players tugged at his anatomy. With Barack holding the ball, Bellman applied his educated toe to the leather, sending it squarely through the uprights for the all-important seventh point.

Rio Grande gained the ball on Wilminton's 40, late in the game and unleased its scoring drive. McGarvey, star fullback of the Lyne-coached outfit, hit the line a 13-yard rap and with 11 seconds to ed.

PUNTS: McGarvey 12, average 41 yards; Bellman 9, average 32 yards; Bloom 2, average 31 yards.

OFFICIALS: Rupp Denison, referee; Robinson, Ohio Wesleyan, umpire; Christ, Gallipolis, headlinesman.

Score by Periods

Wilmington	0	0	7	0—7
Rio Grande	0	0	0	6—6

Rio Grande 6.

PENALTIES: Wilmington 25 yards, Rio Grande 25 yards.

PASSES: Wilmington 13, 5 complete, 75 yards. Rio Grande 12, 2 complete, 34 yards, 1 intercepted.

GREENO STABLE AT LANCASTER FAIR

Wayne Frisco Making Record —Local Horse Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Greeno were home over Sunday, the Greeno stable having been raced at the Ottawa fair last week, and now being located at Lancaster, awaiting the fair races there this week.

Wayne Frisco 2:09¾, star of the stable, has been either the winner or the contending horse in his every start since he left here following his victory at the local fair, where he trotted a great race. He was ill following his race here, but has apparently fully recovered. He won the second heat of his race at Ottawa last week, but lost the race. He is to start at Lancaster, Friday. Greeno sold the trotter, My Old Pal 2:11½, recently.

At a sale held at the Ottawa fair, Thursday morning, Fairmeade Farms, Wilmington, sold the free-logged pacer, Rosedale 2:12½, by Abbedale 2:01¾, to Homer Walton, Indianapolis, Ind., trainer. Walton is the man who developed and drove His Majesty, two-year-old pacer also by Abbedale, to the world's race record of 2:02 for the age, this year. He expects to race Rosedale extensively next year.

Local horsemen learned with regret of the death of Charley Sisight, Sabina trainer, who was located at the local fairgrounds this year. He had raced horses for many years and among others won 58 races with the little pacing mare, Beaut Kennedy 2:03¾, and later on developed and sold her first colt, Golden Direct, for a long price, the pacer taking a record of 2:06¾ on half-mile track. He raced and marked a long list of horses.

Ray Henley 2:01¾, that was trained here this year by Joe Hagler is still winning in the East, having been undefeated this year over half-mile tracks. He has twice lowered the world's record for three heats by pacer over a minor course, once lowering his own record and then having it lowered by another later. The doughty Xenia pacer has met and defeated all the high-class fast pacers racing through the Pennsylvania fair circuit, the toughest in the country.

Dr. H. K. Bailey, local veterinarian, has consigned his fast pacer W. J. G. 2:09¾, by Lauderdale 2:05, to the Indianapolis sale in November. This pacer was trained by Joe Hagler this year and looked promising until he got his record at North Randall in June. Thereafter, he trained off and lost form. Dr. Bailey turning him in pasture.

WICAL IN FORM; SABINA WINS, 11-1

Jamestown Tigers No Match For Merchants

Thurman Wical, star minor league pitcher, took the mound for his old home town outfit, Sunday, pitching Sabina to an 11 to 1 triumph over the Jamestown Tigers.

Wical twirled no-hit, no-run ball until one was out in the ninth frame. Then Haughey and Block cracked out singles to spoil Wical's perfect performance and gain Jamestown's lone run.

Wical, former star twirler of the Charlotte N. C., club's staff and last summer a regular with Nashville in the Southern Association, struck out 12.

Hard hitting by Jerry Cline, Bill Zurface, Taylor and Cox was responsible for Sabina's many runs.

Sabina will engage the renowned Clarksville All-Stars next Sunday with Thurman Wical and Harlan "Iliff" Wysong, former big leaguer, slated for the mound duties.

GRID TITLES TO BE AT STAKE IN SATURDAY TILTS

Elevens Paired Off in Games Which Will Go Far In Deciding Titles

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Sectional championship hopes will be at stake all along the football line next Saturday in the season's most brilliant array of important games.

North and South, East and West, highly touted elevens are paired off in a series of contests that may go far toward determining the eventual sectional champions.

In the East, the Pittsburgh Panthers and Army clash at West Point. In the Big Ten, the Michigan Wolverines, triumphant over Northwestern, tackle their traditional rivals, Ohio State and Purdue, another highly-rated contender, meets Dr. Clarence Spears' Wisconsin Badgers.

The elimination of at least two of the contenders for the Southern Conference title seems certain with duels involving Tulane and Vanderbilt, and Alabama and Tennessee, all unbeaten thus far.

California and Washington State will meet in the biggest game of the Pacific Coast conference schedule and the battle of Texas Christian and Texas A. and M., heads the Southwest Conference slate.

In the East, Penn and Dartmouth tangle, as do New York University and Georgetown and Brown and Yale. Princeton promises to give Cornell all kinds of trouble.

In the way of intersectional competition, there are such contests as those involving Columbia and Virginia, Navy and Ohio University, Holy Cross and Detroit and Southern Methodists and Syracuse, Fordham and Colgate, Carnegie Tech and Washington and Jefferson should put up close battles.

Northwestern and Illinois, Indiana and Iowa, round out the Big Ten program with Minnesota tackling Nebraska, and Notre Dame expecting little more than a workout against Drake.

Iowa State and Kansas will clash in one Big Six match and Kansas State and Missouri in another, while Oklahoma faces the Texas Longhorns.

In the Southern Conference there also will be meetings between Auburn and Georgia Tech, Georgia and North Carolina, Duke and Maryland, Louisiana State and Mississippi State, Kentucky and Washington and Lee.

SPARTANS LOSE TO GREEN BAY

Pro Grid League Champs Win From Portsmouth Eleven By Score of 15 to 10

NEW YORK, Oct. 10—(AP)—Red Grange's Chicago Bears threaten to become the "scoreless wonders" of the National Professional Football League.

The Bearfs have played three league games so far and have yet to lost ode, although they haven't scored a single point. Their drawn battle with the Cardinals yesterday was played in a drizzling rain which handicapped the offensive fo both teams.

Meanwhile, Green Bay, marching steadily toward another league crown, beat back one of their staunchest rivals, the Portsmouth Spartans, 15-10, in a great duel. The victory, scored in the last quarter when Hinckle scored a Green Bay touchdown after a steady march down field, gave the Packers undisputed possession of the league with three victories and one tie in four games. Dutch Clark, of Portsmouth, passed to Ebding for a touchdown, kicked the extra point, booted a field goal and otherwise made himself generally useful.

Benny Friedman's Brooklyn Dodgers were the victims of a 7-6 beating from Stapleton. The Boston Braves were outrushed by a wide margin but whipped the New York Giants, 14-6.

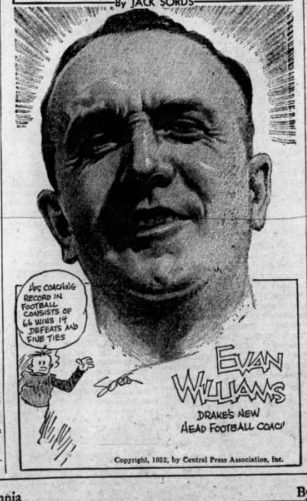
CUBA WINS PAIR OF GAMES SUNDAY

Beats Midland, Martinsville To Close Season

The Cuba baseball team closed its 1932 season, Sunday, winning a double header.

The strong Cuba outfit downed Midland, an arch rival, 5 to 1, and then added another victory over Martinsville by a 2 to 1 score.

A large crowd of fans witnessed the season finale at the Cuba diamond where some exceedingly good baseball has been played this year.



SMITH TO PUT NEW LIFE INTO ORANGE ELEVEN

High School Mentor Expects To Send Fighting Team Onto Field Friday

By H. KROGER BABB

Smarting under the heat of the school's worst defeat in a decade Wilmington Hi's grid squad was expected to get down to the business of playing hard football, today.

Coach Amos Smith, unable to forget the sad performances of a number of his players against Fairmont last Friday, planned to search his inexperienced squad of candidates for boys who will put up a more commendable fight.

The Hurricane mentor is fully aware his team has lost more games in the past two weekends than were charged against his record in two years previously, and he doesn't intend to smile and forget it.

The Orange and Black's performance at Dayton last Friday was far from the dashing, smashing, hard-hitting style of recent years which has served to set the local school out in the front rank of scholastic elevens.

Team Lacks Smoothness

The team moved slowly, blocked ineffectively and tackled carelessly. Plays lacked timing and rhythm and the linemen failed to open holes.

Coach Smith and close observers saw many woeful sights—ends lacking the nerve to jump into punts, tackles failing to charge and backs tackling loosely, permitting ball toters to skirm from their arms.

One major handicap of the Hurricane's offense lies in the inability of the centers to pass the ball accurately. The ball toter is unable to get under way until the ball reaches him, so wild and unreliable is the passing.

In the Fairmont game the oval came back in every known fashion and possible direction. It is wasn't bouncing on the ground or at ankle level, it was wide or high, too hard or easy to handle correctly.

Vivings Beat Washington

The all-important pivot post needs plenty of attention and the Hurricane mentor intends to drill his snapper-backs overtime this week.

While W. H. S. was tasting its bitter setback at Fairmont, other high schools commanding local interest were meeting with varied success.

Chillicothe trimmed Washington C. H. 18 to 6, Bradford lost to O. S. & S. O. Home at Xenia, 24 to 0, Greenfield overwhelmed Dayton Oakwood by more than 20 points and Hillsboro ended Waverly's 14 game winning streak with a 39 to 7 triumph.

London lost to Upper Arlington, 13 to 0, Bellefontaine played a 6-6 deadlock with Sidney, Xenia yielded 6-0 to Greenville and Tom Blackburn's West Carrollton team hung up its fourth straight win, beating Germantown 57 to 6. Lemon tamed Cedarville and Cincinnati Withrow hit a snag, losing to Portsmouth Hi 26 to 0 after 48-point victories over Chillicothe and Norwood.

In collegiate circles Dayton beat the Marines 21 to 14, Xavier lost to Oglethorpe 7 to 0 and Wittenburg pulled through to a 12 to 0 win over Denison, Friday night.

Indiana outplayed Ohio State but got only a 7 to 7 tie, while Michigan was beating Northwestern 15 to 6, Purdue defeated Minnesota 7 to 0, Iowa yielded a 34 to 0 edge to Wisconsin, Illinois beat Bradley 20 to 0, and Alonzo Stagg's Chicago team played Yale to a 7 to 7 standstill.

Past and future W. C. foes fared differently, Ohio Wesleyan beating Syracuse 19 to 12, Defiance losing a 7 to 0 game to Bowling Green, Findlay trimming John Marshall 41 to 0 and Bluffton yielding to Earlham 14 to 6 while Cedarville was swamped by Fairmont, W. Va. Teachers, 59 to 6.

Notre Dame had a track meet at the expense of Haskell Indians, winning 72 to 0 and Frank Cerido's Missouri U. eleven was swamped by Texas, 65 to 0.
