

DAILY OBSERVATIONS.

WEDNESDAY.—Warm and rainy..... Quite a number of Jacksonians go quail-hunting..... William Callaghan, of Liberty, called..... At the Crescent Rink last night one of the skaters knocked a lamp down, the oil spilling and taking fire, and causing a slight excitement.... ..Sup't Harbarger, of the Infirmary, called this afternoon. Among the inmates of the Infirmary at present is an old gentleman named Matt. McGarvey, who has a somewhat remarkable military history. He served with Fremont in the Far West, long before the war, and we believe was in the Mexican War. During the War of the Rebellion he enlisted, served his time out, and re-enlisted as a veteran. He is now quite an old man, but is hale and vigorous yet..... The young men have organized a "Polo Club," and are playing to-night at the Rink..... C. W. Cherington and wife, of Gallia county, are here attending the Ewing-Edwards wedding..
